

2010 Conference Advertising

2010 March on Washington and Legal Symposium April 11-14, 2010

With the dynamic changes that the home care and hospice industry face, the National Association for Home Care & Hospice's 2010 March on Washington & Law Symposium Conference & Exposition has become the "must attend" meeting on policy changes for home care and hospice professionals. The conference brings together decision-makers, and offers CE's, an understanding of current legislative and regulatory policies, direction on how to position their agencies for continuing success, and a chance to advocate on behalf of the home care and hospice community directly with their elected representatives in Congress.
